16 days/15 nights - Calgary-Vancouver Off-Road Wilderness Adventure

Day 1: Arrival in Calgary

Arrival at Calgary Airport. Rental car pick-up and overnight in Downtown Calgary.

Day 2: National Parks in the Rockies – Wilderness Lodge (250 km)

We leave the city in the prairie and drive towards the mountains, visit Banff National Park, look for elk and bears, take the gondola to the Sulfur Mountain and enjoy the panorama. We follow the picturesque Bow Valley Parkway to Lake Louise, with its famous Chateau by the turquoise waters. We drive to the wilderness lodge near Kootenay National Park.

Day 3: Biking, Hiking, Canoeing and Rafting***

An entire day is at our disposal in this wonderful landscape to bike or hike in the Rockies, or raft on the Kootenay River.

Day 4: Crossing over the Purcell Mountains

(approx. 350 km) - We leave the wilderness lodge in the early morning and practice off-road driving on a trail that soon leads us to the natural Hot Springs of Lussier. We continue to drive east over mountain passes, on remote roads if we choose so. Overnight in the area of Nelson at a beautiful inn or B&B.

Day 5: Kootenay - Okanagan Valley (370 km)

We take a picturesque journey along the lakes, interrupted by ferry trips, leading up to the mountains, to Monashee Pass with rich green vegetation and down to the Okanagan Valley. We spend the next 2 nights in Kelowna.

Day 6: Winery Tours in the Okanagan Valley (330 km)

The Okanagan Valley has the best wines and we will enjoy visiting wineries or orchards. This area is also a paradise for golfers.

Day 7 -8 : Gold Rush - Freedom Highway (ca. 700 km)

This day is a long day on the road through the arid areas of the Thompson Okanagan and on the Goldrush Trail to the Cariboo Country. Another highlight of this journey is the trip on the "Freedom Highway" through the Chilcotin. The area is less touristy and thus little developed.

From a plateau with hills, rivers, blue lakes and dense forests, the landscape changes into harsh mountains covered with glaciers covered mountains, where the roads lead no where. We interrupt our trip and enjoy two nights on the Chilcotin Plateau in a lodge or cabin at one of the picturesque lakes. Various activities* are available such as boat rides and fishing on the lake, walking, riding, or a flight with the floatplane (not included) over the magnificent mountains and glaciers of the Coast Mountains.

Day 9 – 10: Chilcotin – Bella Coola (200 km)

This is a scenic drive on the plateau that takes us on the gravel road in to Tweedsmuir Provincial Park. Arriving at the pass at about 1500 m elevation, the steep road takes you down on sea level into the Bella Coola Valley where we stay for two nights. Enjoy a day of guided activity, a hike*, a raft trip* or a bearwatching trip (not included) in late summer.

Day 11: Discovery Passage

We leave Bella Coola early in the morning and take the ferry to Port Hardy on Vancouver Island.*

With a little luck, we will see killer whales, dolphins and eagles in the ride through impressive fjord landscapes, called "Discovery Passage" by the locals. Depending on the date of our travel the ferry may stop at different islands and remote villages.

The direct ferry sails late evening into Port Hardy on the north tip of Vancouver Island.

\ There are three different departure times*

Day 12 - 13: Quadra Island (240 km)

We drive south through endless forests until we arrive at Campbell River. A short ferry ride takes us to Quadra Island and to the beautiful, traditional style Tsa Kwa Lutén Lodge. We enjoy the afternoon and evening in this idyllic place. The following day, we take a marine life watching trip* (with likely whale sightings from early July on).

Day 14: Quadra Island – Vancouver (170 km)

We choose the "scenic route" to Vancouver along the Sunshine Coast. In the afternoon, we arrive in Vancouver and stay in a lively area at English Bay near Stanley Park.

Day 15: Vancouver

Vancouver offers many possibilities: visit of Stanley Park, shopping at Granville Island and Gastown. Enjoy delicious meals, including local seafood.
