

Trek in the MacKenzie Mountains

Spectacular wilderness hike in the Northwest Territories & Yukon

Experience hiking the magnificent North MacKenzie Mountains, Northwest Territories. There are few areas left on this continent that can lay claim to the phrase "untouched wilderness" but those that book a hiking adventure with Arctic Red River Outfitters Ltd. will find this description to be an appropriate one. It is extremely remote, pristine and absolutely wild. Situated near the Arctic Circle at the headwaters of the Arctic Red River, this area is only accessible by bush aircraft; the nearest community is over 200 km away.

This trip is customized according to group size, length, and the physical abilities of clients.

Explore this amazingly beautiful and wildlife-rich region with your experienced guide. We have been operating in this vast region for almost twenty years and have provided many clients with photographs and memories that will last a lifetime. We provide all camp equipment, food and our years of experience. You will be required only to bring your personal gear – a complete list will be sent to you upon booking.

A typical day will see you up early, enjoying a hearty breakfast, then leave your spike-camp for an exciting day of exploring the mountains around you. There are many opportunities for wildlife viewing every day. There are majestic white Dall sheep, Mountain caribou, Mountain grizzly bears, wolves, wolverine and many other mammals, birds, and other wildlife to see and photograph. Typically, you will move camp several times throughout your mountain journey to experience new scenery, terrain and wildlife viewing opportunities. You will end up at another pre-arranged pick-up point or circle back to your original drop-off point. There are other options available such as flight-seeing and river rafting. The possibilities are endless.

The variety of landscapes, the diversity of flora and fauna and the camaraderie with your guide and fellow hikers will all combine to make this a trip of a lifetime for you and your companions. Your complete satisfaction is our future success. Take the challenge and explore this wild land!
