A WOMAN'S PERSPECTIVE OF THE OLD WEST

JENNIFER WHITE OF THE OXLEY RANCH AND JULIE WALKER OF FULL CIRCLE ADVENTURES
INVITE YOU TO A FULL DAY INTERPRETIVE OUTING IN THE UNCHANGED PRAIRIE LANDSCAPE

Journey back in time through stories and wanderings with Jennifer on the Oxley Ranch. Learn about the women who settled the ranch since it's founding in 1882. Now visited by cows, coyotes and Bald Eagles, hear tales about the original homestead, the Ranch and explore the foundation of an old dance hall where the community of ranchers and their families would gather for a rare fun evening of music and dance. You can almost hear the voices and music of the past!

Lunch will be served on the shores of Willow Creek. In the afternoon Julie will point out and discuss some of the edible plants present on the Ranch. Then the group will head out to Old Woman Buffalo Jump where Julie will lead you on an interpretive walk and by the beat of a hide drum take you on a journey back in time to a life of living from and in harmony with the land and all of its bounty and beauty.
